

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

---

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

---

5-6-1977

University of Montana events Monday, May 9-Sunday, May 15

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

---

Recommended Citation

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations, "University of Montana events Monday, May 9-Sunday, May 15" (1977). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 28298.
<https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/28298>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

EVENTS

 UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

Information Services 406/243-2522

Monday, May 9-Sunday, May 15

MONDAY, MAY 9

Father Walter Ong, S.J., an internationally reputed scholar and lecturer, will give a free public lecture, "The Media and the Future of Literacy," at 8 p.m. in Science Complex 131. Father Ong is a professor of English and humanities in psychiatry at St. Louis (MO.) University.

Tickets to a luncheon May 23 in honor of James Reston, New York Times columnist, will be available to University of Montana students for $1.50 until May 13 at the Associated Students' Store in the University Center. The general public may buy tickets there for $2.50 until May 20. Reston, who will be on campus May 23 and 24, will present the eighth Mansfield Lecture on International Relations May 23 at 8 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom.

TUESDAY, MAY 10

Terri Drew, a senior in music at the University, will present her senior clarinet recital at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. She will be accompanied by Kristine Anderson on piano and Lane Grant on violoncello.

The University of Montana Law Student Bar Association will present a seminar on the Equal Credit Opportunity Act from 1:30 to 3 p.m. in room 204 of the law school. Gail Goheen, a Hamilton attorney, will discuss how to utilize the new credit regulations. The seminar is free and open to the public.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 11

The University's tennis courts will be closed Wednesday and Thursday while the birdbath between the courts is repaired.

-more-

WEDNESDAY, MAY 11 (cont.)

George Herman, CBS news correspondent and moderator of "Face the Nation," will present a free public lecture at 8 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom. The title of his lecture is "How Washington Works the Economy."

THURSDAY, MAY 12

Philip J. King, president of the American Schools of Oriental Research, will give a lecture entitled "Recent Developments in Biblical Archaeology" at noon in the University Center, room 360 C. King, who also is a professor at Boston College, Boston, Mass., has helped organize archaeological expeditions throughout the Middle East.

The lecture series "Power, Politics and the Environment" will continue with a panel discussion entitled "The Economy, Employment and the Environment" at 8 p.m. in the University Center Lounge. Panelists will be Dale Burk of the Missoulian; Jean Warren of the Missoula Friends of the Earth; Ron Erickson, chemistry professor, and Bill Vaughn, an environmental writer. This is the third presentation of a four-part series.

Sam Taylor will present his senior violin recital at 8 tonight in the Music Recital Hall.

SATURDAY, MAY 14

The Missoula Symphony will perform in concert with / country music star Chet Atkins tonight at 8 in the Field House. Tickets are on sale at the Field House Ticket Office for $5.50 reserved and $3 general with $1 off on reserved seats for University students.

SUNDAY, MAY 15

Students Lura Elliott, Karen Callan and Mary Roberts will present their senior voice recital tonight at 8 in the Music Recital Hall.

JOB OPENINGS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

The University is an equal opportunity employer.

The religious studies department is seeking a person to teach biblical and related subjects during the 1977-78 academic year on a visiting appointment. A Ph.D. or near is required, and rank and salary are open. Applications should be sent by June 15 to J. W. Flanagan at the department.

The following positions are listed at Personnel Services, Lodge 258.

The microbiology department needs a research aide I. Applications are due May 13.

A field studies and information center coordinator is needed by the Wilderness Institute and School of Forestry. Apply by May 13.

Applications are being accepted until May 13 for a secretary II in the social work department.

The Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs needs a clerk typist II. Applications are due May 12.

The Student Affairs Office is looking for employers for students who need part-time (often short-term) jobs. Anyone with a part-time, summer or temporary job is asked to phone 243-4411 or visit the office, Lodge 101.

-JH-